MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 - The stock market opened with decided weakness and activity. First prices were from % to % per cent, below last Saturday's final figures, and these declines were further increased in the early trading. A partial recovery followed, but the list again gave way, and still lower fi ures were reached. The losses in the gen eral list, however, were for the most part confided to fractional amounts. The business done was principally confined to a dozan leading stocks. Towards 11 o'clock the market became much less active and slight advances were made over the lowest prices, and at 11 o'clock the market was active and fairly steady at the improvement.
